2019
Sul Vulcano
Etna Rosso

90 POINTS

The 2019 Etna Rosso Sul Vulcano lifts from the glass with a rich and slightly confectionary bouquet, showing sugar-dusted black cherries, licorice, and dried rose. It's silk-smooth, quite elegant in feel, as ripe red and black fruits wash across the palate, leaving a staining of minerality and subtly grippy tannins in their wake. There's a hint of custard and balsam herbal tones that linger through the finale, as this tapers off lightly structured and tart.
