

*700 Years of Winemaking in Tuscany
The Strength and History of the Frescobaldi Family
Passion for the Best Vineyard Sites*

The ultra-premium wines of Marchesi de' Frescobaldi come from the most exceptional growing areas in Tuscany. The five Frescobaldi wine estates yield red and white wines that bear eloquent testimony to the expertise of the Frescobaldi house in producing great Tuscan wines.

Castiglioni Chianti DOCG remains a testament to the Frescobaldi tradition of producing Tuscan wines that best express the complexity and depth of Sangiovese.

- Castiglioni is the oldest Tuscan estate owned by the Frescobaldi family, dating back to the year 1092 AD.
- Situated 15 miles from Florence, it is the primary residence of the Frescobaldi family.
- Thanks to its outstanding local climate, Castiglioni Chianti perfectly mirrors the qualities of the local growing area with its smooth texture, ripe fruit flavors and fine, clean-edged structure.
- Aged 7 months before release.

TASTING PROFILE A Sangiovese-based blend that is youthful and meaty with good acidity, intense plum and cherry fruit and a long, smooth finish.

FOOD PAIRING Grilled chicken, risotto and pasta dishes, grilled vegetables and polenta.

