

2005 LEDA VIÑAS VIEJAS

91 POINTS

“Powerful, oak-spiced aromas of blackberry, cherry-cola and plum jam. Lots of dark fruit on the palate as well, along with notes of black pepper and smoky vanilla. Becomes brighter with air, picking up a black raspberry quality and showing very good concentration ...Finishes sweet, broad and long – and drinking very well now.”

Stephen Tanzer's
INTERNATIONAL WINE CELLAR

SEPTEMBER / OCTOBER 2010