

Vall Llach

2010 Porrera VI DE VILA

Wine Spectator

93 points: "Powerful and expressive, this bold red delivers ripe, slightly edgy flavors of kirsch, black-berry and chocolate, with savory accents of tar, rhubarb and mineral. Drink now through 2025." - Thomas Matthews, August 20, 2014

The WINE ADVOCATE.

92 points: "...displays a very ripe personality with black and blue berries and even hints of black olives and perfumed notes of violets and rose petals. The palate is equally fragrant, big and ripe, but with enough acidity and freshness to make it balanced and even elegant in the context. A gentle giant. Drink 2015-2020." - Luis Gutierrez, February 27, 2014

Stephen Tanzer's
INTERNATIONAL WINE CELLAR

92 points: "Bright violet color. Potent, mineral-driven dark berry and cherry pit scents show striking clarity, along with deeper notes of mocha, vanilla and licorice. Stains the palate with sappy black and blue fruit flavors, with smoky mineral and floral qualities adding lift. Powerful for sure, but zesty acidity and the wine's mineral element bring energy and cut. Closes sweet, spicy and long, with youthfully chewy tannins adding grip." - Josh Reynolds, September 18, 2014

WINE ENTHUSIAST

92 points: "Dense, dark-fruit aromas of blue-berry and cassis are earthy and almost overripe. A saturated, bold palate delivers blackberry, chocolate, fig, herb and rooty flavors in front of a chunky finish. Consistent with the Vall Llach house style, this is ripe and modern. Drink now through 2017." - Michael Schachner, December 1, 2014
