WINE ADVOCATE

Grilli, Bibi Graetz's only wine made with Bordeaux or international grapes instead of Italian indigenous varieties is a blend of 60% Cabernet Franc, 20% Syrah, and 20% Merlot from vineyards in Chianti and is fermented and aged in steel vats to preserve the freshness and the fruit-forward nature of the wine...a great value at this price point especially for a mid-weight red for immediate drinking...intense, soft, ripe, and succulent...beautifully saturated color with dark crimson and inky purple. The bouquet is redolent of blackberry preserves, sour cherry, dark plum, bitter almond, and grilled rosemary twig. The finish closes with subtle tones of menthol or medicinal herb. Drink this wine within the next two or three years.
