

Domaine Les Cailloux
André Brunel

Cuvée Centenaire 2015

An exceptional, fine cuvée only produced during great vintages.

Terroir

To celebrate the 100 years of planting the most beautiful plot in the Domaine, located in the eponymous sector of Farguerol, in 1989 Lucien and André decided to create a special cuvée issued specifically from this plot which became the Cuvée Centenaire.

The soil and subsoil in this plot do not contain much limestone. However, bluish-toned, compacted graphite clay, on both the surface and below the surface layer, give this wine its mineral properties. The vineyard's positioning gives the vines perfect exposure to sunshine and the frequent and turbulent Mistral winds contribute to the concentration of sugar in the grapes. This unique terroir cultivates a wine rich in aromas and structure for a truly complex cuvée.

The Cuvée Centenaire is only produced during exceptional vintages such as in 2007, 2010, and with this 2015, when it can fully express the quintessence of the Grenache.

Tasting Notes

Rich and expressive on the nose black currant and blackberry with hints of leather suggest a complex wine which has gracefully aged over time. These aromas, accompanied by perfectly mellow tannins, give way to roundness in the mouthfeel followed by an impressively long finish.

Wine-Food Pairing

Red meat and game or to enjoy quite simply alone for the sheer pleasure of drinking a great wine.

Technical Sheet

When to drink

This great wine becomes more complex with age. Even if it's hard to wait, a good 10 years is necessary for its full potential to be revealed.

Blending

Grenache (85%), Mourvèdre (15%).

Average age of the vines

125 years

Yield

15 hl/h

Type of harvest

Exclusively manual