

COPPO

1892

BAROLO DOCG 2015

Since its founding, Coppo is among the few wineries allowed to vinify Nebbiolo to become Barolo outside of the wine's strict production area.

APPELLATION: Barolo DOCG
GRAPE VARIETY: Nebbiolo
EXPOSURE: south-southwest
SOIL COMPOSITION: calcareous clay marl with presence of sand and silt
VINEYARD ALTITUDE: 650-820 ft a.s.l.
TRAINING SYSTEM: Guyot
VINEYARD DENSITY: 4,000 - 5,000 plants per hectare
HARVEST PERIOD: September 2015
HARVEST: selection in the vineyard of the healthiest and ripest grapes, hand collected in 40 lb picking baskets
VINIFICATION SYSTEM: maceration with skin contact with short and soft pumping over the skin cap
MALOLACTIC: totally carried out
AGING: 36 months in large oak casks
ALCOHOL: 13.93% vol
TOTAL ACIDITY: 5.91 g/l
pH: 3.50
COLOR: intense garnet
NOSE: violet, cherries and licorice aromas
TASTE: well balanced, harmonious and elegant
PAIRINGS: baked beef shank, braised veal cut, baked lamb with potatoes
SERVING TEMPERATURE: 18°
SIZES: 0.750 l - 5 l

