

ANDRÉ BRUNEL

Côtes du Rhône

Bécassonne

2018

This cuvée comes from a unique plot, particularly suited for white wine. The vineyard lies on a hill exposed to the rising sun and protected from the burning setting sun by a pine forest, allowing for the grapes to fully ripen to give a floral and exotic character to this white wine while preserving freshness which is fairly rare for the white Côtes du Rhône Blanc

The 2018 vintage, combines body and freshness and is a perfect partner for an aperitif, as well as, fish and white meat. Can be enjoyed immediately.
