CHÂTEAU PUECH-HAUT TÊTE-DE-BÉLIER BLANC 2017

Robert Parker
Wine Advocate

94-92 Pts

A barrel-fermented wine based mainly on Roussanne, the 2017 Languedoc Saint Drézery Tête de Bélier Blanc looks to be another thrilling example of this bottling. Hints of toast highlight notes of marshmallow, apricot and pineapple on the nose, while the medium to full-bodied palate is creamy and ripe, then brought into crisp focus on the long finish by hints of white pepper and tannin. The Wine Advocate
