RARE CHAMPAGNE Millésime 2006 & Rosé Millésime 2008, THE EXCEPTION REWARDED BY A MYRIAD OF MEDALS

The two new vintages unveiled this year by Rare Champagne received the best recognition from renowned international competition, from golds medal to Champion Sparkling Trophy award. Carefully preserved in its bottle bearing a golden crown, Rare Champagne renews again this year its international recognition for its unique blend of Chardonnay and Pinot Noir as well as for its infinite freshness and purity.

RARE MILLÉSIME 2006

Gold of the ages

During an incredibly sun-filled year, the vines outperformed themselves.

Drawing inspiration from an exceptional natural resource, Régis Camus created a luminous Champagne enhanced with magnificent contrasts: Rare Millésime 2006. Following thirteen years of cellaring, the wine has matured to express vivid complex aromas with taut, expressive minerality.

RARE ROSÉ MILLÉSIME 2008

A precise mineral grace

For its second rosé vintage, Rare Champagne offers enthusiasts a bouquet of spring flowers and crisp dark fruits, with notes of star anise and sweet almond. Rare Rosé Millésime 2008 boasts great consistency in appearance, nose and palate. Régis Camus was as determined and precise in blending Rare Rosé Millésime 2008 as Mondrian was in creating his masterpiece.

RARE CHAMPAGNE, THE TRUE EXCEPTION

With its rich expression, Rare Rosé Millésime 2008 and Rare Millésime 2006 join the nine other Rare Champagne vintages produced over the 20th and 21st centuries.

The incomparable Rare Champagne expertise defies the usual rules governing the terroir selection, blending, storage and design. Carefully preserved in its bottle bearing a golden crown, Rare Champagne is internationally renowned for its unique blend of Chardonnay and Pinot Noir as well as for its infinite freshness and purity. Resisting the trivialisation of vintages, Rare Champagne is the true exception.
