Colledilà Chianti Classico Gran Selezione DOCG 2017

TASTING NOTES

Ruby red colour. Very complex nose of ripe red fruit, iris, violet and balsamic hints. The palate is succulent, juicy; the well-balanced acidity with soft tannins give this wine freshness and length.

GRAPE VARIETIES

100% Sangiovese

AGING

18 months in 500-litre tonneaus of which 30% new and 70% second passage.

The purity of fruit here is stunning with blackberry, blueberry and orange-peel aromas and flavors. Medium-bodied with ultra fine tannins. Racy and focused with precision and polish that is very impressive for the vintage. Drinkable now, but better after 2022.
