

Dominio Del Soto

2020 Albillo Mayor

Ribera del Duero

Established in 2005, Dominio del Soto is based in Sotillo de la Ribera, at the heart of the Ribera del Duero wine region in the province of burgos in Spain. With 16 hectares of organically grown vineyards, Dominio del Soto combines terroir and knowhow in a traditional manner to create and barrel-age its Roble and Crianza wines.

Winemaker Notes

The wine is golden yellow with a complex nose displaying fruity notes of pears, white blossoms and a smoky, butter side. The palate exhibits a fine structure, with nice smooth character and a smoky, saline finish, giving the wine excellent length.

Soil

Deep clay-limestone and marly-limestone soil.

Climate

Mediterranean climate, tending to continental, characterized by harsh winters and hot, dry summers with a significant variation between day and night-time temperatures.

Winemaking

The grapes are picked by hand and placed into crates. Direct pressing in whole bunches, cold static settling, fermentation with native yeasts in stainless steel vat (70%) and demi-muid barrels (30%). No malolactic fermentation. The wine is then aged on its lees for 12 months.
