LUKE Sauvignon Blanc hails from the Evergreen and Rosebud vineyards—two of Washington’s premier white wine vineyards. The wine shows off aromas of fresh cut grass and ripe passion fruit. On the palate, notes of grapefruit, apricot and melon shine with a refreshingly racy acidity throughout.

I spoke to him only once. His words to me were few but remarkable, “A man’s life is short. Make yours a worthy one.” At the time I thought—in this life, he must have been born lucky. Years later, when I saw the horseshoes nailed above the worn threshold, flecks of gold still shining through their old, weathered appearance, I finally understood. He’d made his own luck.
