ISOLE E OLENA

CEPPARELLO IGT TOSCANA 2019

Cepparello is the embodiment of the unwavering dedication of Paolo De Marchi to quality, to the land, to Sangiovese, and first and foremost a testament to his life's work. This wine was first classified as vino da tavola, the only possible appellation for a Sangiovese at that time, becoming thus one of the first Super Tuscans.

ABOUT THE WINE:

This Sangiovese is intense and bright ruby in color. On the nose a complex bouquet ranging from floral to wild berries with hints of spice. The palate is characterized by red cherries, earthy with a depth of complex savory acidity and soft tannins.

vinous

... gorgeous Sangiovese fruit, along with hints of blood orange, spice, cedar, mint and tobacco, all wrapped together by plush, silky contours. The purity of the fruit is just striking. In 2019, Cepparello is more finesse than power. I expect it will age beautifully over the next several decades.
