

Belleruche Rosé 2022

Côtes-du-Rhône

WINE ENTHUSIAST

BEST BUY 2023

“Brilliant pink in hue, this rosé has a beautiful nose of Melba peaches, wild strawberries, cherry tomato, pink flowers and wet river rocks. This has delicious depth and mouthfeel that leaves you craving another glass.”

Anna-Christina Cabrales, September 2023

THE New Wine Review

“Crisp nectarine and tangerine aromas mingle raspberry and sour cherry on the palate of this brightly concentrated rosé.

It’s a full-bodied, ample sip but zesty fruit tones and a salty mineral rim lends freshness throughout.”

Anna Lee C. Iijima, September 2023

JAMESSUCKLING.COM

“A medium-bodied rosé with notes of redcurrants, melon, grapefruit and bay leaves. Round and flavorful with a fresh core of berries and a herbal, succulent finish. Drink now.”

James Suckling, May 2023

Rosés For Bastille Day

A venerated producer since 1808, this is a wine with a real sense of place with those garrigue scents bursting out of the glass, conducting the symphony. The fruit takes a second row in this performance, but it’s there, playing the raspberry and rhubarb song. A little bit of a snappy bitter bite on the finish is the crash of the cymbal. Brava!
