

BRUNO GIACOSA

2020
BARBARESCO RABAJÀ

“The Bruno Giacosa 2020 Barbaresco Rabajà is a little rounder and softer in personality compared to the extremely focused and linear 2021 vintage. This expression awards dark fruit and lovely concentration and has a medium-plus body on the palate. You can't say that it is more accessible, because the wine will require more bottle aging, but there is a softness to the fruit that is immediately pleasing.”
